ORLANDO ATTORNEY LANCE O. LEIDER SUCCEEDS IN OBTAINING DISMISSAL IN DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH INVESTIGATION ON MASSAGE THERAPIST ESTABLISHMENT

Orlando, Fla. - July 8, 2020 -The Health Law Firm announced that one of its health law attorneys, Lance O. Leider, recently obtained a favorable decision in a Department of Health complaint investigation of his client, a massage establishment.

The Department of Health was investigating a complaint that Mr. Leider's client had allegedly provided prostitution services through its licensed massage facility . He was successful in attaining a "no probable cause" finding by the Probable Cause Panel of the Board of Massage Therapy.

As a result of Mr. Leider's representation, the charges against the client were dismissed and the case closed.

The Health Law Firm routinely provides legal representation to massage therapists, nurses, physicians, mental health counselors, pharmacists, and other health professionals, as well as to resident physicians and medical students, in a variety of different situations.
